

AIG SELECT-a-TERMSM

AIG American General is giving you 6 months to give yourself a $500 bonus. Sell 5 AIG Select-a-Term off-period cases during the contest period and earn a $500 bonus!

Rules

Contest period: Cases submitted between December 10, 2007 and June 13, 2008 and paid by July 11, 2008 are eligible for the contest.

Place in force five "off-period" AIG Select-a-Term cases during the contest period and we will pay a $500 bonus to the writing agent. The bonus will be paid in the form of an American Express gift card.

"Off-period" cases are defined as AIG Select-a-Term cases for any level-premium periods EXCEPT 10-, 15-, 20-, 25- or 30-year terms.

The company will pay only one $500 bonus per agent based on the agent's Tax ID number (regardless of the sources through which the business is submitted).

The bonus will be treated as compensation for the agent and will be subject to all normal tax reporting.

Split cases will be based on the split commission percentage as recorded on the application. To qualify for the bonus, five total cases or more must be written. No rounding will be done (e.g. 4.75 cases will not be rounded up to five cases).

Production from agencies identified by the company as Direct Marketers (DMs) will not be included in the 5 for $500 bonus. Employees of certain financial institutions are also not eligible to participate in this promotion.

This promotion includes only American General Life policies; United States Life policies are not eligible. The contest does not include business written in New York.

AIG American General will be the final judge on all issues, including, at its sole discretion, the determination of an agent's qualification for the bonus. AIG reserves the right to add other plans to this promotion at any time upon notice to the field.
